2nd grade sparked Rosemarie's love for the word. Now she's all grown up performing as One Single Rose™...a singer with a seven octave range, award winning poet/spoken word artist, author, actress, playwright, filmmaker, workshop facilitator and motivational speaker. If you're looking to add something different to your events, One Single Rose™ will not disappoint...

As a poetry author, the emotional struggle of One Single Rose™ adding spoken word performances into her repertoire was difficult. She shed these fears by sharing pieces of herself on the open mic. Soon thereafter, her spoken word journey took flight. She receives frequent requests to pen poems for individuals and groups on various subject matters with empowerment for her sisters and domestic violence prevention on the forefront. One Single Rose™ stepped out on faith and is now following a poetic path that opened doors for her to share pieces of herself nationally and internationally.
